

To Whom It May Concern - EVERYBODY!

Abandonment of fiber crop studies and investigation at the Everglades Experiment Station was announced at Washington by the Secretary of Agriculture with accompanying "whoops" about economy, and has gone almost unnoticed. Perhaps it is just as well since we can now await a definite reply to a very recent request that Secretary Freeman bring us fully up to date in the matter. The whole question will then be reviewed in detail and as publicly as may seem desirable and necessary after the real facts and intentions are made known to us.

In the mean time, we can only regard such a decision as the Secretary seems to have made to dismember one of the few activities in the Government that is proving assistance to our Latin American friends as occupying a close parallel to some of the really quite hideous rulings of the Wirtz (Labor) in making in relation to future use of off-shore labor. He confessed, probably quite innocently, to Senator Holland and the U. S. Senate Agricultural Committee that he doesn't know anything, whatsoever, about the really crucial problems that are involved.

It is possible that Secretaries Freeman and Wirtz are in nominal training for any opening that may occur on the Supreme Court in the near future? If and when that happens we can surely know that we have inched just so much closer to the point where that once august body and defender of our Land and its people will be putting up a sign, "Congress, go home."

Canal Safeguards To Be Proposed At Legislative Clinic Here Friday

A definite course of proposed protective action against the 150 miles of "death-trap" highways which parallel canals in PB Co. will be discussed at the legislative clinic to be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the City Court House auditorium.

The drive to eliminate this highway hazard was initiated by Lion Henry Earwood, and gained momentum this week with a meeting held in West Palm Beach Tuesday afternoon, attended by State and county representatives. The action was given endorsement of Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce and a number of civic organizations and a "Canal Hazard Committee" organized under Earwood's leadership.

The most practical solution to come out of previous meetings has been a program of planting divergent hedges or small trees along the entire roadside bank. The feasibility of this action was brought out at Tuesday's session by Dr. E. W. McKelvey, head of the

Citizenship Week Assembly At BGHS

Friday, January 29, 1965, has been the date designated by the Administration of Belle Glade High School for the assembly program sponsored jointly by the Junior Civitan Club and The Speech Department.

Guest speaker for the program will be Mr. Travis Messer of Orlando, past Governor of Florida International for the State of Florida. Mr. Messer, a noted speaker and personality never forgotten by those who have heard him, has as his topic for tomorrow's assembly - "CITIZENSHIP."

Mr. Messer was asked to speak on Citizenship since the week of January 25-29 has been "Citizenship Week" at BGHS. Each morning, beginning Wednesday, a short inspirational message has been broadcast over the intercommunications system of the school by speech students under the direction of Mrs. Helen Cline.

Master of ceremonies for the program will be George Pinon, President of the Junior Civitan Club. He has been extending a formal invitation to everyone to be present at 2:00 p. m. tomorrow in the auditorium of BGHS to benefit from the ideas expressed.

County Pledges Aid To Control Peddlers

County Commissioners indicated this week they would encourage and endorse legislative action to control or license peddlers whose places of business are highway shanties.

The subject was brought to the board's attention by Charles Royal, who said the merchants of Belle Glade are losing hundreds of dollars worth of business to peddlers.

The merchants are said to be operating in violation of state and federal tax laws.

The board said it was without authority to adopt such a fee, but suggested the matter should be called to the attention of Palm Beach County's legislative delegation - which will be done Friday at Belle Glade.

At a Commission meeting, Monday night, the City Commissioners voted unanimously the new "tap on" fees for water and services within the city. The new levies were put into effect, after City Manager Tevis Hugely explained the cost to the city, including the meter, was $57.75. He stated that the rising costs of meters based on the cost of materials would leave the city in the "red." At present, cost for tapping on with 3/4 inch line is $35.00.

The Commission, on a motion by Commissioner H. C. "Connie" Bowen, agreed to raise the price to $75.00. One-inch installations were hiked from $45.00 to $125.00, when the City Manager stated that the meter cost $65.00. One-inch installation of two-inch tap-ons were raised from $125.00 to $250.00, after the Commissioners learned that the cost of that size installation would be $191.21 to the city. Other tap fees will be based on the cost of meters and installations, it was stated.

It was also voted on to charge $10.00 fees for those tapping on, who had existing lines running from their septic tanks. There will be a 90-day period for persons living along the right-of-way to take advantage of the new service at the bargain rate. Those who go beyond the 90-day period will be charged $35.00 fee if they reside along the line.

There will be a fee of $250.00 where an installation has to be made and a city street dug up to furnish service. When the new improvements now underway are completed, there will be an adjustment of service fees for both water and sewerage.

GLADES CHURCH NEWS.....

Congo Missionary For 17 Years Addresses Women's Church Group

Rev. William Mulvey, former Congo Missionary, was guest speaker at the luncheon meeting Monday of the Women of the Everglades Presbyterian Church, Belle Glade, which was held at the home of Mrs. L. L. Price, World Missions Chairman. Mrs. Al Harris presided at the meeting, which opened with prayer, by Rev. J. Paul Vondraek, pastor of the Everglades Presbyterian church, after which, Mrs. Junior Collins introduced the guest speaker.

Rev. Mulvey, born in Augusta, Georgia, was graduated from Columbia Bible College Theological Seminary. He was ordained in 1943 and served as Missionary in the Congo from 1943 until 1960. He is presently serving as pastor of Wausau Presbyterian church. He is married and has three children.

In observance of World Mission Emphasis throughout the Presbyterian, Rev. Mulvey spoke to the group on the causes and conditions contributing to the unrest in the Congo. Two of the main causes of unrest within the Congolese are pressure within, as well as pressure without.

Mrs. L. L. Price, World Missions Chairman for Everglades Presbyterian Church, was hostess for the luncheon Monday noon held at her home on Pahokee Rd. for the Women of the Church.

The speaker stressed the fact that the rebels in the Congo represent a very small group, yet because of many disturbances, much publicity has resulted. The importance of these disturbances, however, is recognized because of the acknowledged fact by many governments throughout the world, that "As goes the Congo, so goes Africa."

Pressures from within the Congo are due mainly to two factors: conflicts within the government structure; a wrong conception of the people of what their newly acquired independence means; a misunderstanding and lack of communication among the tribes due to the many different dialects — 420 in all; the vast difference in education, progress and ambition of the tribes, and the resulting fact that all distrust each other and as a result are against central government of any kind.

From without are pressure, created by Western Democracy, Communists, the Egyptians and worldwide movements of Africa for the Africans.

Another change in the Congo today is the reviving of health practices such as witchcraft and some cannibalistic rituals by which the natives hope to prove their power over the white man.

Baptist Men's Day Program Enjoyed At S. Bay Baptist

The First Baptist Church of South Bay observed Baptist Men's Day on Sunday, January 24th. The spotlight focus was on men when members of the church gathered for their worship hours on Sunday.

The First Baptist Church held one of an estimated 15,000 churches throughout the Southeastern Baptist Convention which recognized their men in a special way on Sunday.

Beginning in 1933, the observance of Baptist Men's Day, formerly known as Laymen's Day, has been observed as an annual event in most Baptist churches.

Features of the day were Mr. Frank Willis and Mr. W. S. Jowen who gave Testimonies. Mr. W. C. Allen and Mr. Larry Williams who read the Scriptures; Mr. Bill Ferguson who served as Pianist; Mr. Jay S. Smith who spoke on Sunday. Evening on the subject of "The Role of the Father in the Christian Home." The pastor, Rev. James A. Fenton spoke at the morning worship hour on the subject "Am I My Brother's Keeper?"

Some 21 men joined together at the church on Friday for a Catfish Dinner served by the Women's Missionary Union of the Church. All of the men enjoyed the dinner and requested that this type program be more often.

Society Must Be Built On Integrity, Faith

By Lewis Hlewellyn
"Whosoever heareth these sayings of Mine and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man which built his house upon a rock. . . . And every one that heareth these sayings of Mine and doeth them shall be likened unto a foolish man which built his house upon the sand."

The program for the Great Society envisioned by President Johnson calls for a bold and ambitious new effort to eliminate poverty and control disease throughout our entire nation.

Nobody can quarrel with the announced objectives of the Great Society, though some may question the methods.

Imperfect as our present society is, we should not lose sight of the fact that there are millions in other nations who long for the privilege of coming to our shores — who have fled from this country as the Promised Land.

However, the only way to progress is to strive continually to improve — to do better than we have done in the past.

But the Bible warns us of the peril of building a fine structure on an insecure foundation.

The foundation of any sound political or social structure must be integrity. If this is missing, no matter how fine the facade, the building will crumble and great will be the fall of it.

Some of us would like to see a thorough investigation of this society's business and financial practices revealed some time ago in high levels in the nation's capital — not so much to have the culprit punished as to make sure that such unethical dealings will not be perpetuated in the future. In fact, they are not now being continued.

"Sea Cows" Polish Plates (Rocks)

A university study of manatees and their usefulness in controlling aquatic weeds in Florida canals has been declared, after eight months, "a success so far, beyond our original expectations," says Jack Horner, Vice Chairman of the FCD Board, said the study of the mammals — also known as sea cows — "is working quite well, though it has practical limitations." He reported that Dr. Peter Sguero of Florida Atlantic University, Boca Raton, has found that manatees attack aquatic weeds "like a vacuum cleaner," and that they get down to eating the roots of weeds and even polish

Certain Retired Army Men May Reenlist Now For 30 Year Career

Certain retired Army enlisted men may now reenter the Army to complete a 30 year career, according to recruiter Sergeant First Class Ronald E. Rosser.

In a departure from previous policy, the Army will now permit qualified non-medical retirees who have less than 27 years of service to reenter the service for the purpose of completing the maximum term of 30 years, in answer to thousands of requests received from the men themselves since the outbreak of hostilities in Vietnam, the sergeant said.

Who apply must meet the physical and mental requirements normally imposed on a serviceman who wishes to re-enlist, serving a regular term of service.

Further information for personnel now living in West Palm Beach County may be obtained by writing or visiting Sergeant Rosser at his office, Room 214, Main Post Office, 400 South Olive Street in West Palm Beach, or telephoning him at TEmple 2-8938.

The personnel medal of honor soldier visited Belle Glade on Wednesday, January 13, and is next due to make his regular stop at the Draft Board here on Wednesday morning, February 10.

The Kitchen Sink — Easy To Unstop!

The drain in your kitchen sink is used more than any other in your home — and it gets stopped up more, too.

These stoppages are frequently caused by liquid fats removed in dishwashing. After a length of time, a substantial amount of grease can build up, thus the drain becomes clogged.

Clearing a clogged drain can be accomplished in several ways, advises the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau. Often the trouble lies just below the sink strainer and can be loosened with a long screwdriver or piece of wire.

Also, there are many excellent and powerful commercial drain-cleaning compounds available from plumbing companies. The Bureau advises call for the services of a qualified field plumber contractor.

rocks in a canal bottom. Dr. Sguero is the scientist in charge of the three-year manatee study which was authorized early in 1964 by the FCD Board.

Five manatees, captured for the FCD by the Miami Seaquarium, were released last May 7 in a canal near Fort Lauderdale. They are now finishing cleaning up weeds in their second mile of the waterway.

Horner cautioned that many questions concerning manatees remain to be answered — such as concern their rates of reproduction, for example, and their tolerance of cold air and water temperatures. But the summary of the experiment to date is "so far so good."

Dr. Sguero will deliver a paper on the manatee project Jan. 21 at the Southern Weed Conference at Dallas, Texas.

Adoptive Applicants For Children Sought By State Welfare Dept.

Through its adoption placement service the State Department of Public Welfare is seeking adoptive applicants for white and Negro children ranging in age from newborn infants to school-age children. These children who are awaiting good adoptive homes are healthy youngsters in need of emotionally stable, warm parents who have the capacity to give love and understanding to a child.

DIXIANA OWNERS and operators, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Bass (right) enjoyed showing a host of friends through their new, and most attractive private dining rooms. Here the camera caught visitors Mrs. Carl Cone and the City's Mayor LeBarr Williams at the Open House party given by Joel and Louise on their opening day last Friday.

'Regulars' and 'Tourists' Welcome Re-Opening Of The New Dixiana

Glades folks wholeheartedly welcomed the reopening of The Dixiana last Friday as was evidenced by the large turnout at the Open House given in this favored restaurant's new home last Friday afternoon.

Beginning at 1 o'clock, visitors thronged the place until six, expressing their good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Joel Bass, owners and operators, with the ladies, in particular, admiring the colorful, attractive decor, which was supervised under the talented hand of Mrs. Bass.

The former large residence at the corner of SE Avenue E and First Street, converted to a cottage style restaurant by Joel with the assistance of his father Avery and brother Kenneth, has a homey, spacious dining room on the ground floor with tables, booths and a horseshoe counter service. The top floor, which offers additional space daily, when needed, is furnished in regal splendor for special private dinner parties or banquets, and is available by reservation as well.

During the afternoon guests were served hors d'oeuvres, donuts, hot rolls and coffee, while they enjoyed meeting again "the old familiar crowd" who in the main form the restaurant's clientele.

With the dinner hour, beginning at six, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Morris reported today that alcoholic beverage and cigarette taxes took a sharp rise of 14.20 per cent during the month of December, 1964, over the same period one year ago, December, 1963.

Blind Newsmen Is Robbed Monday Of Newspaper Funds

It seems that with the changing of the guard, some have reached a point where they would have to "reach up to touch bottom." This would particularly apply to the "chief" who took it upon himself to abscond with the hard-earned money of Will Spates 118 NW 11th Street, blind 64-year-old "newsboy," a familiar sight in Belle Glade. Spates, who has been selling the Belle Glade Herald since its first publication in 1940 as well as the Miami Herald and "Sonny Boy" the Pittsburgh Negro Newspaper, told a representative of the Belle Glade Herald that he had approximately $75.00 in a box atop his refrigerator, when he left to make his delivery rounds at 5:00 a. m. Monday.

Returning to his room later in the day, he realized a window had been left open, and upon looking for the money, found it missing. He lives alone. According to police, the thief entered the room by forcing the window open, leaving by the door. At press time, there had been no further developments in apprehending the thief.

Trio Injured In Wreck Sunday Near South Bay

Eduardo Montalvo, 50, a Belle Glade rancher and sugar cane grower, has been charged with failure to stop at an intersection, following an accident Sunday afternoon, near South Bay.

A Miami motorist, Mrs. Dovey Holloway, 51, and two passengers in a pickup truck, suffered injuries, when she swerved her vehicle to avoid a head-on collision with the Montalvo vehicle, entering the main thoroughfare from State Road 27-A. The crash, which occurred at Okeelanta Bridge, sent the operator of the pickup truck, her husband Ralph Robert Holloway, 55, and a friend, Mrs. Blanche Eva Mullis, 51, to Glades General Hospital for treatment. All were from Miami. Florida Highway Patrolman, George Emerson, who investigated the accident, stated that Montalvo entered the main highway without stopping. The pickup truck struck a metal guard rail, ripping it loose from its mooring. Holloway was more seriously injured than the other occupants, striking his head against the windshield.

Census Survey To Reveal Number Of Job Vacancies In U. S. Homes

How many job opportunities for household help are there in the United States? How many housekeepers, cooks, maids, day workers, babysitters, gardeners, or odd job men are needed?

A sample of households in this area will help to supply the answer when the U. S. Bureau of the Census conducts its monthly Current Population Survey during the first week of January 17, at was announced today by Thomas W. McWhirter, Director of the Bureau's Regional Office at Atlanta.

Information furnished by local households will be combined with that gathered in 256 other sample areas of the country to obtain national estimates of the help-wanted situation in American homes.

In addition to these special questions on household help, Census Bureau interviewer will ask about intentions to buy automobiles, houses, and major household appliances. Answers to similar questions asked last October revealed the American public was planning to buy these items at a high rate. The January survey will show whether the upward trend is continuing.

And as in every monthly Current Population Survey, inquiries of anguish from faithful fiction readers have greeted the Library Board's announcement that a larger portion of the book fund is put forward on non-fiction in the future.

We appreciate the concern of these patrons. We are hoping that their moans, combined with some concerted action on the part of interested citizens in Belle Glade, will help to hasten the achievement of what years of devoted service by a few have accomplished by in part — the establishment of a good basic book collection worthy of a town of our size and interests, complete with adequate reference material. A varied fiction collection would be the icing on this cake.

—NEGRO NEWS— Belle Glade Boy Among Finalists For Nat'l Achievement Scholarship

Charles W. Francis, Interim Superintendent of Boggs Academy, Keyville, Georgia, has announced that Eugene E. Lang II is among the 639 Finalists of the 1964-65 National Achievement Scholarship Program for outstanding Negro students. Lang is the son of Mrs. Ella S. Lang of Belle Glade, Florida.

The 639 Finalists were chosen by a selection committee which selected 4,200 nominations submitted by some 1,305 secondary schools across the country. All American high schools, public and private, are invited to nominate candidates for the program.

Lang, director of the program, describes it as a talent seeking to locate, honor, and encourage the most able Negro students.

Lang is active in the campus life of Boggs Academy where he has been a varsity letter

Howls of anguish from faithful fiction readers have greeted the Library Board's announcement that a larger portion of the book fund is put forward on non-fiction in the future.

We appreciate the concern of these patrons. We are hoping that their moans, combined with some concerted action on the part of interested citizens in Belle Glade, will help to hasten the achievement of what years of devoted service by a few have accomplished by in part — the establishment of a good basic book collection worthy of a town of our size and interests, complete with adequate reference material. A varied fiction collection would be the icing on this cake.

Our long range aims are books for everyone, and a budget adequate to provide them. Reference books cost a lot of money. Donations from groups and individuals interested in filling the town's need for such books, in some field in which they have a special interest, are eagerly solicited. Such assistance might leave us free to provide more of the fiction line.

New to our shelves are these: THE SOUTH AND THE SOUTHERNER by McGill. A dramatic blend of history and autobiography by a Georgian, explaining to his home folks the South's role in the moral dilemma in which the South has been involved 150 years.

Southeastern Fat Stock Show At Ocala Jan. 29-30. 3-H club members and Future Farmers of America throughout the state will come to Ocala Friday and Saturday, January 29 and 30, to vie for honors in the Southeastern Fat Stock Show.

The show will open Friday morning when steers are received, weighed, and mouthed. Steers will be judged in the afternoon. A grand champion will be declared.

4-H and FFA members will enter the livestock judging contest Saturday morning. Awards will be presented following the judging.

The Ocala-Marion County Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a fat steer sale during the day.

Hereford, Angus, Brahman, and Charolais cattle judging is scheduled for February 3-6 at the Fat Stock Show. The Florida Hereford Association will have a sale and Charolais cattle sale will be held during the week.

"But, Alice, when will we ever have an opportunity to wear them back in Menominee Falls, Wisconsin!"

Salvation Army Drive For Funds Continues Here

During the past several weeks the Salvation Army drive for funds has been in progress. The results to date have been very gratifying, according to G. L. Royal, chairman.

A representative stated that it would be impossible to contact everybody, and those who have not contributed and wish to do so, may send their contributions to: The Salvation Army, P. O. Box 734, Belle Glade, Florida.

The Salvation Army is an organization that is well established. One hundred years of service to the needy and down-trodden, to the sick and in distress, will be marked this year by this organization, when it commemorated the Anniversary of its founding in London in 1865.

No one individual can realize how many millions of people have been influenced to lead better lives because of the kind, helping hands of the Salvation Army. In this community, county, and throughout the state, the Salvation Army carries on everyday services, meeting the necessary needs, whether they are material or spiritual. The Salvation Army helps all people in trouble and in need.

Buying U. S. Savings Bonds is an excellent way to prepare for that time when you start taking it easy. Buy one a month at $37.50 and you'll have $50.00 a month coming back when the bonds mature.

New Library Book Depository is Convenient

Florida Buys 99.1% Of '64's Total Quota In Savings Bonds

Although Florida lacked less than one percent of reaching its '64 quota of sales in E & H Savings Bonds, it was 2.6 percent below the sales for '63, when 105.95 percent was reached.

In '63 Floridians bought $89.2 million, but only bought $86.6 million in '64.

However, Palm Beach County bought $5.06 million for a 101.5 percentage.

A book depository, for the convenience of library patrons wishing to return books after regular hours, has been installed in front of the Belle Glade Public Library at 100 Canal St., South.

The steel container was purchased for $5,000 from the budgetary allotment for the present fiscal year, according to City Manager Tevis Hageley.

Mrs. Bettie Harris, Librarian said the depository will also be a convenience and time saver to the library staff, cutting short the time now spent in recalling overdue books by telephone.

Basil M. Todd's License Revoked by PAC of USDA

The U. S. Department of Agriculture announced today that the PAC license of Basil Mack Todd, doing business as The Todd Company, Pahokee, Fla., has been revoked effective January 26, for repeatedly violating the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act.

According to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service, disciplinary proceedings were instituted against Todd for failing to pay more than $36,000 for numerous shipments of produce received in interstate commerce from eight different Florida producers between January 30 and February 20, 1964.

Todd cannot obtain a new PACA license to conduct business as defined by the act in his own name or any other name for two years, the Agricultural Marketing Service said. Further, he cannot be employed by another PACA licensee until one year has elapsed, and following that only if the employing licensee posts a surety bond with USDA.

Farmers' Income Tax Time!

Income tax reporting time is almost here for farmers and ranchers.

An excellent way for farmers and ranches to prepare for this task is to obtain a copy of Publication No. 225, the Internal Revenue Service's 1965 edition of the Farmer's Tax Guide, says Roger Hill, assistant economist, Florida Agricultural Extension Service.

It is available without cost from the offices of local county agents or those of the Internal Revenue Service. Farmers and ranches wanting extra time to file their final report have until January 15 to file their 1964 tax estimate. If this estimate is filed, the final date for filing Form 1040 is extended to April 15. However, if no estimate is filed, February 15 then becomes the deadline for making the final tax report. These deadlines, Hill points out, apply only to taxpayers who derived two-thirds or more of their 1964 gross income from farming or ranching.

Another important consideration is the reporting of labor and social security tax on wages paid. Either of two tests determine whether or not a farmer must pay social security tax on wages. If the worker was paid cash wages of $150 or more during the calendar year or if he was paid cash wages (computed on a time basis) for 20 days or more during the year, the 5 1/2 percent social security tax should have been deducted from such wages. Form 943 is used for reporting farm wages. Farmer-employers must show wages paid and give the account number of individual workers. Tax withheld plus an equal amount from the employer, along with the reporting form, must be filed on or before January 31. "Because every phase of the farm and ranch business can be affected by taxes, Hill emphasizes the need for a complete study of the '65 Tax Guide."

Schultz Fishing Derby Opens Feb 1st

Wads of cash will be waiting for Lower East Coast fishermen, beginning Monday, February 1, at 12:01 A. M., with the opening of the 1965 Schlitz $500,000 Florida Fishing Derby in eight counties for the fifth consecutive year.

Derby awards ranging from $25 to $10,000 have been posted by the Jos. Schlitz Brewing Company for the only event of its kind, a scientific research program to promote Florida conservation and recreation, and conducted by the Florida Game and Fish Commission and the Florida Board of Conservation, dealing with salt water fisheries.

More than 10,000 fresh and salt water fish are being tagged for release in all 67 counties of Florida by the state agencies who will record and study fish captures in the fifth annual Derby.

Each tagged fish represents a cash bounty for its return through a Schlitz wholesaler to the state agencies. All costs of this most extensive fish tagging program ever undertaken are defrayed by the Schlitz Company which has distributed nearly $250,000 among Florida fishermen in previous Derbies.

As in the past, the state has been divided into four geographical zones, and the 1965 Derby will run in each one for three months at a time to coincide as nearly as possible with peak tourist and fishing seasons.

Zone 1 — Southeast Florida and the Lower East Coast — includes the counties of Broward, Dade, Indian River, Martin, Monroe, Okeechobee, Palm Beach and St. Lucie.

Zone 1 Derbies dates are February 1 through April 30. During this period the minimum award for Schlitz fish will be $25, offered for tagged specimens of that value released last year, and for any tagged fish released in previous years. Other 1965 prizes range from $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and $10,000. One $10,000 fish will be released in each zone. The values are determined by an impartial drawing of duplicate tag numbers, entirely separate from and unrelated to the tagging process.

Claimants of awards in Zone 1 need only to take tagged fish to the nearest Schlitz wholesaler at Fort Lauderdale, Fort Pierce, Homestead, Key West, Miami or West Palm Beach who can be identified by any beer dealer, fishing camp or boat operator, and yellow pages of the telephone book.

The tagged fish must be delivered with tags intact, and will be sent by the wholesaler to a laboratory of the state agency concerned for comprehensive biological studies. Types of fresh water fish being tagged for the 1965 Derby include black bass, catfish, crappie, bream (including bluegills), sheeters and other panfish, plus some experimental species being introduced in Florida.

Attempts are being made to tag specimens of all the following salt water fish: trout (speckled and silver), mangrove snapper, sheepshead, catfish, drum, snook, bonefish, sea bass, cefish, flounder, barracuda, sharks, and reef fish including red snapper and grouper.

The Derby is open free to everyone, residents and visitors alike, of all ages, except employees of Schlitz and the state agencies. Fish must be caught with hook and line during the Derby period in compliance with Florida fishing regulations.

Despite a month of unfavorable fishing weather last February, 100 fishermen and women on the Lower East Coast collected $7,500 in Schlitz awards during the 1964 Derby. Two of them received $1,000 apiece, one got $500, six caught $100 values, five hooked $50 fish, and 160 were paid $25 each for their cooperation in the conservation research program.

Throughout the state, 1,289 1965 Schlitz Derbies were held. Schlitz wholesalers in 1964 for a total of $44,850 in cash awards.

An innovation and added incentive this year will be an Old Milwaukee Conservation Award which will double the usual award for certain numbered tags to be made known publicly as the fish are released.

As in previous years, because of the important research value of uncaptured tagged fish in former Derbies, Schlitz has assigned a value of $500 to a number of these fish caught during the 1965 Derby in each zone.

Robert M. Ingle, director of research of the Florida Board of Conservation Division of Salt Water Fisheries, said the cash awards offered by Schlitz for returning tagged fish being studied had made possible a biological conservation program that otherwise would be beyond the financial capability of a state agency.

"The Derby has done much to advance Florida's marine research," he added. "It has done much to improve the state's fishing facilities by producing new knowledge of fish life and habits."

John W. (Bill) Woods, Fisheries Division Chief of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, said the tagging program had enabled his staff to sample fish populations, measure fish growth, map migratory habits and evaluate fisheries in both light and heavily fished locations. The state's fish management programs are now based on the results of these scientific studies.

Robert A. Uihlein, President of the Joseph Schlitz Brewing Company, said: "The annual Florida Fishing Derby has continued every year to achieve its goal of supporting conservation and recreation in Florida. We feel confident the 1965 Derby will be as entirely successful as has been in the last four years."

American Legions Lead The Way

"There are no atheists in the trenches" was the report brought home by these who saw active duty during the two world wars.

The fact that American Legion posts throughout the nation have begun a drive to get prayers back into the schools convinces us they have not forgotten their convictions with the end of war.

Ten Legion posts in New York State have begun distribution of special covers to slip onto school textbooks. On the covers was printed a nondenominational prayer. The prayer is a 60-word text printed on the blue paper of the covers, which also bear the American Legion emblem and motto, "For God and Country," as well as space for the student's name and address on the front. On the back, with the suggestion that the prayer be used every day, is

This week "30" was written following numerous stories printed around the world on the life of a man who held world-wide acclaim as a great statesman.

As we sifted unlimited reports on his life's work and his many quoted comments, one thought remained above all others as the secret of his greatness.

"We acknowledge our dependence on Thee, Almighty God, and pray Thee to assist with Thy Spirit of counsel and fortitude the leaders of our country. Grant that they may perpetuate to us the blessings of liberty and freedom. Bless our teachers and parents and all the people of our beloved country and may we ever be faithful to Thee, Amen."

The prayer was written by a Methodist minister while he was serving as state American Legion chaplain. The words represent a synthesis of the thoughts of two former chaplains, one a Catholic, the other a Jew, as well as his own.

Those who gave most to keep our country free have not forgotten. They are taking action to keep "God in the forefront" at schools.

He had a great capacity for caring... caring gave him strong convictions... convictions gave him courage. Once convinced of his stand, Winston Churchill was not awed at standing against the world in upholding his stand. He was first a soldier, a patriot, and AS A RESULT a statesman who rendered outstanding service as a saviour of his country.

The Orient Can Be Most Interesting

Two Belle Glade ladies, Ruth Wedgworth and Edith Freedlund were privileged to make a tour of the Orient. Their report, which was published in the Herald, is of interest to all who are interested in the life of the Orientals and descriptive report.

Uncle Dan Says:

Dear Master Editor:

My regular pamphlet from the U. S. Department of Agriculture came last Friday morning and I ain't a bit of a chokes done around the house on account of reading about the farm situation around the country. My old lady says the worst enemy in the world today a farm wife has got is them pamphlets from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

First off, some woman that lists herself as head of the Market Division of the Department, allowed as how she wanted to say a few words in defense of the grocery stores of America. Just what this has got to do with agriculture, I ain't shore, and she stretched her few words into the second chapter of the Gospel according to Jeremiah, but she had a good point.

She claimed American women was complaining the food bill was getting higher and higher. She says it ain't so, that women was spending more and more at supermarkets and making the mistake of blaming it on the food bill. In 1963, for instance, she reported about half the tooth paste, light bulbs, razor blades, cigarettes, dishes, and toilet articles sold in America was brought at supermarkets. Furthermore, she claimed, a heap of socks, shirts, towels and such items was going on the supermarkets bill.

I was discussing this matter with my old lady and she figured, come to think about it, the woman was right, that nowadays supermarkets sold just about everything and women was lumping the bill together and calling it groceries. How the so ever, allowed my old lady, if you bumped into a bunch of auto tires and lawn mowers you was in the wrong place. You was probable in a drug store.

I bring this item up at the country store Saturday night and Ed Doolittle was of the opinion the whole plan of living in this world was swapping ends and getting out of focus. He said he had saw in the papers where we got 190 million Americans and fer over 1,000 persons they was being served by 12 doctors, a service station workers at a mill in North Carolina had shipped 200,000 diapers to a African country where the men was wearing 'em fer head turbans. Clem allowed as how this was about as far as you can get with swapping ends.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

SINGAPORE

Edith Freedlund

On our free afternoon we took a taxi to the Methodist Headquarters. There is quite a large office staff, and the attractive native woman who greeted us had on purple pants, a white flow and blouse, and exquisite jade earrings. She told us that recently the government had taken over all church schools in the city and religion was only allowed to be taught for fifteen minutes before school took in, and fifteen minutes after school. This was a large school with a basketball court, and a raised portion on one side with wooden tables, sinks and chrome burners where the students could get their lunch. Adjacent to the school was a large Methodist Church. We had to have left at some ten o'clock for a taxi and get back to our hotel. The next afternoon Miss Laura Schoeman, a Methodist missionary who had been teaching in a girl's school up the peninsula at Kuala Lumpur, came to get us with a small car and driver. Before a tour of the city, we stopped for curry tarts and coffee at a Tea Room. On a high hill is a two story house where many of the Methodist teachers live. It has a wonderful view of the city. There is a large school nearby. There are many boys and girls schools and Seminaries in Singapore. In driving thru the city, many different denominations have school scattered all over, and also many different churches.

Our Malaysian Guide prepared us for our visit to the famed Botanical Gardens. He bought half a stem of bananas for us to feed the monkeys, but we all enjoyed eating part of them before we arrived. As we walked up the shaded walks surrounded by dense growth on all sides, the guide started to make queer sounds. He had told us that we would feed the tame monkeys, and all of a sudden here they were by the dozen. They were small and grey and greedily ate all of our bananas. They did not try to climb up on us, but some of the women seemed to be afraid of them, probably because there were so many of them.

We crossed the Indian Ocean on a causeway to Johore in the state of Johara. We had special written permission to visit the Sultan's Old Palace. He was the grandfather of the present Sultan. This was a lovely old large building resembling a palace, and held fabulous treasures of the Orient. There were many guards who ushered us around. First we went into the Sultan's trophy room filled with ivory tusks, animal skulls, trophies of all types, photos of his hunts, ash trays made of buffalo and elephant hide, and glass cases full of interesting artifacts. There were photos of the English Royal Family, and an oil painting of the Sultan and his European wife, who later divorced him. Of the Sultan and his European wife, who later divorced him. Of the Sultan and his European wife, who later divorced him. Of the Sultan and his European wife, who later divorced him.

While we were in Singapore we realized that we were exactly one half way around the world from where we started in Florida. Singapore is 85 miles north of the Equator and Indonesia is only 5 miles away. There are three thousand taxis in the city. Yet in driving around, we noticed a canal with many sampans right in the heart of the city. There were much nicer than most of the ones we saw in and around Hong Kong. Singapore has an annual rainfall of 95 inches and the trees, grass and plants were luxurious. Conditions did not seem to be very crowded, and the people were bustling and things seemed to be thriving. Fifty percent of the people are under twenty years of age. The Moslems are allowed to have four wives, and many concubines. This was the most cosmopolitan city we visited. It seemed like the Arabian Nights come to life. The huge banquet hall had a marvelous collection of vases of jade and crystal. Oriental rugs were on the floor. At one end was some glass furniture. This was fabulous - chairs and a table of clear glass. Two immense glass chandeliers hung from the ceiling. In the Throne Room the chairs were gold with the legs carved as claws. The end of the reception hall opened onto a large veranda and we could see formal gardens sloping down to the water.

From The Editor's Desk . . Financing A College Education

The cost of going to college is becoming a crucial problem for an increasing number of men and women. It takes a substantial amount of money to go to college, and the cost is steadily rising.

Although the problem is increasing there is still hope. There are increasing opportunities for jobs during summer vacations and during the school year. There has been a rise in available scholarship money and loan funds. What does all this mean to you?

It means that if your parents provide about one-third of the cost of your college education, chances are almost certain you can get the remainder. A study on the major source of student income made by the United States office of education shows that parents and others accounted for 40.5 per cent of student income; summer earnings 9.2 per cent; college year earnings 17.0 per cent; scholarships for 5 per cent; loans for 1.5 per cent; other programs 7 per cent.

We see then that one-fourth of the funds come from working one's way through college. It is not wise to attempt to earn all your expenses while attending college and having a full schedule. It is also unwise to take a job in the first half of the freshman year. You must have the habit of study in the freshman year and make adjustments necessary for your future in college. You should have enough money to see you

Granny Advises

Dear Granny,
My hair is very brittle and breaks easily and the ends are split. It is totally lifeless. It really looks horrible. I hate to be out among people with it looking like it does. I feel so embarrassed. Please help.
Moppy

Dear Moppy
It appears that you have extra dry hair which can sometimes be very humiliating. Cut all the broken and split ends wash your hair once a week. After each washing rinse it in vinegar to strengthen it. Oil the hair at the scalp at least once every two days. Keep this treatment up and you should start seeing improvements within two weeks.
Granny

Dear Granny
My boyfriend is going away. I don't want him to go away because I'll be lonely. What should I do to keep from being lonely while he's away.
Your truly, Lonely

Dear Lonely,
A person should not stay home and brood because her boyfriend has left. There are many things you may do to help occupy your mind.
1. You may date others.
2. Join some club or organization.
3. You may attend other activities like a pool party, Banquets, dances and etc.
4. Invite others to your house for activities such as pajama parties and games.
The main thing is not to stay home and allow your mind to wander. Keep yourself busy.

Just For The Record HOW TO PREPARE A REPORT

At one time or another we may all be called upon to submit a written report or make an oral report. This report should be long enough to cover the subject and short enough to maintain the interest of the reader. It should be original in some sense.

The writer should budget his time. Two thirds of the available time should be used for gathering information and one third of the time for writing. This is done so the writer won't spend too much time getting irrelevant details.

Some Useful Rules For Making a Report:
1. Select a topic that is not too broad or narrow.
2. Select your title last.

3. Define your topic. Know exactly what you intend to cover and how thoroughly you plan to cover each aspect.
4. Do some background reading. See how others have handled the problem with which you are now dealing, and think of how you can improve on them.

5. Prepare a tentative outline. Examine this outline as you go along and make changes without completely crossing out your writing. Reading because you may want to come back to these preliminary ideas later. Decide whether you want to develop your material on a chronological basis, or on a topical basis, or both.
6. Don't list a quotation without listing the author.

7. Arrange material in order of outline.
Of course this is only the rough draft. If time permits you should put this copy aside as long as possible then re-read it. You may be able to read it more objectively. It may appear to be a brilliant piece of literature or it may have many unnecessary sentences and repetitions. It is advisable to learn and use these rules for preparing reports. One day they may be useful.

Tips To The Females

LADIES:
Knit sweaters really seem to be sweeping the country this season and they play a fashionable part in any girl's wardrobe. To keep these sweaters looking new, they should be kept clean as much as possible. However, many times cash run short and we are not able to afford dry cleaning expenses. If your sweater is hand washable the following hints will help.

1. Remove rings and hand-nails from hands in order to avoid pulling threads.
2. Remove all trimmings and jewelry from sweater.
3. Do not wash sweaters of contrasting colors together.

4. Before washing the sweater draw an outline of it on paper or cardboard.
5. Use warm water and a mild soap. Be sure soap flakes are dissolved before you start washing. Avoid use of chlorine bleaches or other harsh detergents.
6. Squeeze the suds through the garment do not rub, twist or ring.

7. Ring garment until water remains clear.
8. Next, remove excess moisture by rolling sweater in towel. Then put it into the shape of the outline and pin it.

9. When dry you may press the garment with a steam or dry iron on a very low temperature if necessary.

A Newspaper
A newspaper is a collection of half in justices Which, baffled by boys from mile to mile Spreads its curious opinion To a million mercurial and love agony.

While families cuddle the joys of the fireside
When spurred by tale of dire love agony.
A newspaper is a court Where everyone is kindly and unfairly treated.
By a squall of honest men. A newspaper is a market Where Wisdom sells its freedom.

And melons are crowned by the crowd.
A newspaper is a game Where his error scores the player victory While another's skill wins death. A newspaper is a symbol. It is felix life's chronicle. A collection of loud tales Concentrating eternal stupidity.

That is remote ages lived unaltered, Roaming through a fencible world.

Could you Possible give us another day or two to "cupper" at?

Dear John Doe,
After receiving your cable, I called a board meeting. We have decided to let January 29, 1965 be a "rest day" for all students.

Having read your letter though, I am inclined to think that maybe you should utilize a portion of this day studying English fundamentals.
Mr. Fulton

Love
Why does my heart skip a beat when you're near?
Because to my soul you are so dear.
The sight of you takes my breath And after you leave I need to rest.
Around you my whole world is built; You make it balance and sometimes tilt.
At times I love you from the core of my soul; Then I hate you with the fury of a woman scorned.
And I almost regret the glowing love I've borne.
But I can never fully forget. The moment our eyes thrillingly met.

We knew this was not an event That for us, much more was meant.
And so we courageous began Conquering the problems of the world hand-in-hand.
Forever we will be this way Because we live in faith, truth, and trust every second of the day.
So believe me darling, for us love is true
For you were meant for me and I was meant for you.

"L" earning & "L" iving

Did you ever notice that the letter "L" is a right angle? It starts off in one direction, makes an abrupt turn, and then heads another way. This letter starts three words, life, living, and learning. Living well, you can solve some of your problems, but learning helps solve most problems.

Here are some general problems that usually arise in every teenager's life:
1. Dating on school nights.
2. Being able to pay attention and concentrate.
3. Too small an allowance.
4. Physical attributes.
5. Being accepted.

How does a teenagers go about solving these problems? Suppose for just a minute that there were no other people in the world but you. "Good," you would say, "that would solve just about everything." You would not need to learn to get along with parents, sisters, brothers, teachers, and friends. Ah, but would all your problems be solved? No. Since we cannot stop the world and get off, the best idea is to LEARN how to live in it. Let's examine the problems mentioned.

Obviously, living will take care of the problem of dating on school nights. You will always be going to school you know.
Paying attention is a matter of learning. If you are having trouble concentrating, ask yourself Why. Try to discover where your interest span is failing you. Once you have discovered your weakness, you can utilize knowledge to help you over come them.

Sorry, but you need to learn two things about money. One is how to manage your money better. You also need to learn how to sit down with your parents and discuss the situation realistically, showing them your expenses for a week or two and asking them for help in working out a budget.

You have probably heard that you should be proud of being tall. If you are tall, cheer up, living will take care of this problem for you, and you must learn to accept yourself as you are.

A group usually sticks together because they have something in common such as tastes, ideas, opinions, and goals.
Making friends is an art that is acquired by practice. If you consider yourself a "loner" and you try to fit in with others, it doesn't cost anything to be cheerful, to pass a few words to a neighbor that sits next to you in class.

If you will put the twins "L's" together, learning that make life pleasant and easier will be developed. One must go on living and learning as a part of living. Together they add to a richer, and happier life.

Mimi's Column

Extra, extra, read all about it, I know the latest and I'm gonna shout it.
M. F. they tell me, you and W. M. have a thing going on. What does W. T. have to say about this?
L. G. I know you were surprised when both of your girls attended the game Saturday night. What did you do about it?

W. C. do you and D. G. plan to go steady again or has your love become a thing of the past?
J. S. it is necessary for you to tell M. A. R. everything! After all, you are supposed to be a young man.
B. H. what's this I hear about you saying, M. W. thinks he can have any girl he wants! Were you angry with him or is that just old love?

A. W. I think you found a new love. Did you? Found G. F. Yes, you found a love and Oh what a love!
J. F. it is really all over between you and S. H. The old saying, "Time brings about a change" is certainly true.
Don't let the cold weather get you down because I'll always be around.

Judy Green Enters Radiology Technician Training

JUDY GREEN (2nd from right) joins Army veterans on her first day in service to distribute material at the National Association of Secondary School Principals in the Fontainebleau Hotel, Miami Beach. With her are (l-r) South Florida Women's Army Corps Selection Officer Lieutenant Marion Davis, Hialeah Army Recruiter Staff Sergeant Matt Stuckey and Chief WAC Procurement Officer Lieutenant Colonel Josephine L. Rodenis.

Judy Ellen Green, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Victor Greene, 33 NW Avenue C, Belle Glade, enlisted today in the United States Army, and immediately upon enlistment was whisked away to Miami Beach to take part in the Army's presentation to the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

The June, 1964, graduate of Belle Glade High School joined the chief Women's Army Corps Procurement Officer, Lieutenant Colonel Josephine L. Rodenis, in the plush Fontainebleau Hotel on Miami Beach to help distribute literature to education leaders from the entire United States.

Following her morning at Miami Beach, the young Army volunteer boarded an aircraft bound for Fort McClellan, Alabama, and her basic training at the Women's Army Corps Center there, according to Army Recruiter Sergeant First Class Ronald E. Rosser. Following basic training, she will travel to Fort Sam Houston, Texas, where she will enter radiology technician training at Brooke Army Medical Center, Sergeant Rosser said.

Private Green follows in the footsteps of the rest of her family, as her father is a Major in the Army Reserve and her mother was an Army nurse during World War II. She also has an uncle who is a captain on active duty in the Army.

Information about the opportunities of Army enlistment may be obtained by calling Ser-

Now, Phosdrin is an all-season insecticide
-vegetable growers are using its hard-hitting control and fast disappearance in every spray.

The special effectiveness that has always made Phosdrin® Insecticide profitable for late-season use is now protecting vegetables throughout their growth. Here's why:

For 5- to 7-day spray schedules authorities now recommend have changed the role of Phosdrin. With its rapid speed of kill and near-perfect insect control, Phosdrin is extremely effective in the new short-interval spray schedules.

Also important in the new programs: Phosdrin is competitive on a cost per acre basis and its fast disappearance eliminates problems.

Insects and residues both vanish
A Phosdrin spray cleans up a broad spectrum of insects in a matter of minutes—aphids, mites, loopers, worms, almost all destructive pests attacking vegetables. Because control is so thorough, insects can't build to damaging levels between sprays. And, of course, accidental drift to a nearby field also disappears rapidly.

Phosdrin makes it easy to avoid problems—all season and close to harvest. It's gone from the field a few hours after application.

Complete control is economical
Phosdrin alone, protects lettuce, tomatoes, beans, peppers, celery, watermelons, eggplant and many other vegetables. There's no need to add another insecticide and raise costs... even if resistant insects are present. Phosdrin stops them too. And it offers a wide margin of safety to leaves and fruit of insecticide-sensitive crops like cucumbers and lettuce.

A little Phosdrin goes a long way. As little as 1/4 pound per acre is all it takes to end the damage of most vegetable insects. Dosage rates seldom exceed 1/2 pound per acre. Check into costs and consider the overall protection Phosdrin gives you and your crop, and you'll see why it pays to use Phosdrin all season.

Phosdrin is available from your local insecticide dealer under many well-known brand names, or as a product of Shell. In liquid or dust.

QUIEN ERA MARTÍ... Por Jose María Borges.

NATALICIO DE JOSÉ MARTÍ: 28 de Enero El natalicio de José Martí. Los alumnos de todas las escuelas de Cuba se preparaban siempre para la mas hermosa parada escolar que se celebraba. Millares de estudiantes rendían homenaje al glorioso visionario de nuestra libertad.

En Cuba siempre habia en las ciudades y los pueblos un rincón martiano, un busto, un paseo, una lapida, que hacía revivir el recuerdo de aquel hombre, que fue todo heroísmo, amor y sacrificio. Fuera de Cuba, tambien en otros países de América y de Europa, hay avenidas que llevan su nombre y monumentos a su memoria.

Era Martí un gran cubano
Honra de América toda
Descendiente de un hispano
De sangre mambisa y goda.
Era poeta y cantaba
Era escritor de verdad
Era sonador, sonaba
Sonaba en la libertad!

Su palabra fue un torrente
Que refresco mil conciencias
Su corazón de valiente
Lo llevo a las inclemencias

La cerviz nunca dobló
Sólo grande como era
Al tirano no injuró
Libertad fue su quimera!

Amaba al niño, a las flores
Y odiaba a la tiranía
Puso en Cuba sus Amores
La sirvió con hidalguita!

Sintió en su rostro arrebol
Al pensar que era un esclavo
Y murió de cara al Sol,
De cara al Sol como un bravo!

Fue Apóstol y Martí, así
Noble y bueno, no perverso
Los hombres como Martí
Libertan al Universo!

JOSÉ MARTÍ nació en la Habana el 28 de Enero de 1853. Fueron sus padres Mariano Martí, sargento de artillería del ejército español, y Leonora Pérez, nativa de Cuba. Sus estudios en la Escuela Superior Municipal de la cual era director el poeta y patriota Rafael María Mendive, quien después costeo sus estudios en el Instituto de la Habana, por la pobreza de la familia de Martí.

Un incidente con miembros del Cuerpo de Voluntarios provocó la prisión de Martí a los diez y seis años. Condenado a seis años de trabajos forzados con un grillete en el pie derecho, trabajó en las canteras de San Lazaro. Enviado a Isla de Pinos, fue mas tarde desterrado a España. En Zaragoza cursó los estudios finales de bachillerato, y la carrera de Filosofía y Letras y Derecho. En España se relacionó con patriotas allí residentes, dando muestras constantes de su amor a Cuba, asistiendo a veladas académicas y artísticas, y frecuentando las principales bibliotecas, con lo que adquirió una notabilísima cultura. Terminados sus estudios, embarcó para Méjico. Allí colaboró en periódicos de la capital. En 1877 pasó a residir a Guatemala, donde ejerció el cargo de Profesor de la Escuela Normal. Volviendo a Méjico contrajo matrimonio con Carmen Zayas Bazán, una distinguida camagueyana. Aprovechando la amnistía del Zanjón, regresó a Cuba en 1879, y a poco nació su hijo, que el quiso naciera en patria cubana. Participó en veladas literarias y conspiró con Juan Gualberto Gómez y otros patriotas en favor de la Guerra Chiquita. Conocida su labor revolucionaria, lo arrestaron y enviaron preso a España de nuevo. En este su segundo destierro, se afirma en la convicción de que para lograr la libertad de Cuba se debía indispensable separarla de España; se dirigió a New York y a los veinte días de su llegada pronunció su primer discurso de sabor patriótico. Perfeccionó sus conocimientos del idioma inglés que habría de dominar con rara maestría. Vio quince años en los Estados Unidos. En 1880 marchó a Venezuela, donde fundó la Revista Venezolana, y fue recibido y agasajado del país. Por los principales centros.

Tuvo sin embargo que abandonar el país, por la presión del dictador de Venezuela, Guzmán Blanco. De regreso a Nueva York intensificó su labor revolucionaria y publicó sus tres colecciones de versos: Ismaelillo (1882) Versos Libres (1882) y Versos sencillos (1891). Recorrió las islas de las estrofas mas conocidas de sus versos:

Yo soy un hombre sincero
de donde crece la palma
y antes de morirme quiero echar mis versos del alma.

Yo soy un hombre sincero
Volar al azul sereno
Y morir en su guardia
La vultura del veneno.

No me pongan en lo oscuro
ni a morir como un ciego
Yo soy bueno y como bueno moriré de cara al Sol.

Cultivo una rosa blanca en julio como en enero para el amigo sincero que me da su mano franca.

Y para el cruel que me arranca el corazón con que vivo
cultivo la ortiga cultivo
Cultivo la rosa blanca.

Yo quiero cuando me muera que patria pero no amo
tener en mi tumba un ramo de flores - y una bandera!

Fundó y dirigió La Edad de Oro, publicación para niños. Y escribió dos poesías muy bellas. LOS DOS PRINCIPIOS Y LOS ZAPATOS DE ROSA.

En Buenos Aires, sus crónicas La Nación y otras publicaciones Hispano-Americanas revelan el escritor original y vigoroso que había en él. Por esta época, fue Martí consul en Argentina, Uruguay y Paraguay. En 1884, se asoció a Maximó Gómez y a Antonio Maceo en un nuevo intento para liberar a Cuba.

Visita Tampa y Cayo Hueso. Su palabra fogosa y su condición de iluminado iban conquistando adeptos para la lucha por la independencia, y dan lugar a la formación del Partido Revolucionario Cubano. Martí se entregó a la tarea de extenderlo y consolidarlo. Recorrió las poblaciones de Estados Unidos donde existía una apreciable colonia cubana (Cayo Hueso, Tampa, Ocala, Jacksonville, San Agustín, etc). Durante tres años trabajó sin tregua ni descanso. En 1894 se descubrió su plan de Fernandina y fracasó la bien organizada expedición armada que preparaba. No se desanimó por ello. Levantó nuevos recursos, a costa de esfuerzos extraordinarios por el agotamiento de las fuerzas económicas de la emigración. En Enero de 1894 redacta las ordenes de alzamiento. En Febrero llega a Santo Domingo. El día 24 en Yara se da el grito de independencia o muerte y decidida su partida para Cuba, redactó en Montecristi el manifiesto de este nombre, que firmó con Maximó Gómez. Este consejo a Martí, alma de la revolución, que volviera a los Estados Unidos donde sus servicios se consideraban mas necesarios, pero Martí se mantuvo firme en sus propósitos de tomar parte en la lucha que él había desatado. El 11 de Abril desembarca en Playitas, al sur de Oriente.

MUERTE DE MARTÍ EN DOS RÍOS
El día 19 de mayo 1895 se hallaba Martí no lejos de la confluencia del Contramestre y el Cauto. Se le habían reunido el general Bartolomé Masó y el general Maximó Gómez. Martí pronunció entonces su ultimo discurso. Cuando un oficial cubano hizo saber a Gómez que una columna española de mas de 800 hombres se acercaba, avanzó Gómez para atacar al enemigo en la pequeña sabana entre Boca de Dos Ríos - "Cuando ibamos a enfrentarnos al enemigo," escribe Gómez en su diario - "le ordené a Martí que se quedara atrás." Pero puede mantenerse atrás el que a nadie ha pedido un peligro que no estuviera dispuesto a afrontar el mismo? De ningún modo. Y sobre el hermoso caballo blanco que le ha regalado José Maceo, y en compañía del joven Angel de la Guardia, se dirige a galope hacia la manigua donde se encuentran apostados los infantes españoles. Son una decena, y el cuerpo de Martí, herido de tres balazos cayó pesadamente en tierra. Angel de la Guardia trató de levantar a Martí, pero al no conseguirlo corrió hacia las filas cubanas a dar cuenta de la terrible tragedia.

Los restos mortales de José Martí reposan en el cementerio de Santiago de Cuba.

"walks" right over bumps and trouble

Independent front suspension takes the "truck" out of truck ride. It smooths rough roads, protects truck, driver and cargo from excessive jolting. And on Chevrolet pickups it's a proved system with millions of miles of user experience behind it. Try it out on one of Chevrolet's great Fleetside or Stepside pickups. It's one of the big reasons that Chevrolet is first choice with pickup users from coast to coast.
